Report on Nani A. Palkhivala Memorial Elocution Competition

The Symbiosis Law School, Pune, which is a constituent of Symbiosis International University, Pune, organised the 'Nani A. Palkhivala Memorial Inter-Collegiate Elocution Competition for Law Students' for the seventh consecutive year at Symbiosis Law School's Moot Court Hall in the Viman Nagar.

This competition seeks to keep the memory of the legend Nani A Palkhivala alive and enable students to remember his contribution to the protection of rule of law. The host institute, in hosting the competition, also sought to play its part in providing students an opportunity to realize the importance of clarity of thought, speech and expression with regard to public speaking.

The dignitaries on the dias included Chief Guest Shri S.V Naik, Former District Judge; Shri Amitabh Dasgupta, Faculty member of Symbiosis Institute of Media and Communication; and Dr. Shweta Deshpande, Faculty member of Symbiosis School of Liberal Arts. The honourable dignitaries commenced the competition by ceremoniously lighting the lamp at 11:30 A.M.

The 'Welcome Address' was presented by Dr. Shashikala Gurpur, Director, SLS, Pune wherein she introduced the competition to the audience and participants, and after cordially inviting all participants to speak, the honourable judges were felicitated by Dr. Shashikala Gurpur and Dr. Bindu Ronald.

Participants were invited to speak for five minutes on a topic of their choice from the following: 'Law as Instrument of Change and Progress'; 'Mobile Applications and data access- Serious threat to privacy' and 'News Media - Blurring Line between Responsibility and Overreach'.

The first participant, Mayuri Sonone from Shankarrao Chavan Law College spoke about how media is responsible for forming public opinion and how the public is often misinformed.

The second participant, Priyanka Rajmane from Balaji Law College spoke about the jurisprudence of Indian law and how it has resulted in societal progress for the country.

The third participant, Shreya More from Modern Law College spoke about how law guides the behavior of individuals in a psychological manner and the role of all organs of government in framing policy.

SLS, PUNE

A. H. S. L. D.

The fourth participant, Saket Anand from Sinhgad Law College, spoke about the ownership of media, content published, and the self-regulation practiced by News Media.

The fifth participant, Yukti Vijay from Dr. DY Patil Law College spoke about the role of law in developing the economy and spearheading societal progress through continuous change.

The sixth participant, V.G Sreeram from Symbiosis Law School, Pune spoke about the authority of law that rights-based movements looked up to, for effecting a wholesome change in any society.

The seventh participant, Kunal R. Sarpal from ILS Law College in his speech, highlighted the responsibility and overreach of news media in yellow journalism and suggested improvements in management of news outlets.

The eighth participant, Abhishek Salian from Deccan Education Society's Law College talked about the role of media in important processes- both democratic and juridical, and emphasised on the right of individuals to be aware.

After the conclusion of speeches by all participants, the judges were invited to give the audience and participants their feedback.

Shri Amitabh Dasgupta, an accomplished luminary in the field of news media acknowledged the speeches of the participants and enlightened the audience with his knowledge. He spoke about the role of media in educating the people and the participative role played by individuals in today's media, vis-à-vis the right of the media to have an opinion published, and the possibility of ethical publication of paid news. He also clarified doubts from the audience regarding the role of the media.

Dr. Shweta Deshpande, congratulated the participants and appreciated the inquisitive and argumentative nature of their speeches.

Thereafter, the Chief guest awarded the prizes to the participants. Kunal Sarpal from ILS Law college was awarded the position of second runner up; Abhishek Salian from DES Law College was awarded the position of first runner up; and V.G Sreeram from Symbiosis Law School, Pune stood first.

The Chief Guest then referred to sections of the Ramayana and congratulated the participants for taking this opportunity to speak at a stage. He then talked about the psychological effect of public speaking and the relevance it has for a practicing advocate.

Dr. Bindu Ronald then gave the 'Vote of Thanks' wherein she thanked the participants for their keen participation, the judges for adjudicating the event and also the organizing committee of the event, and thus the Nani A. Palkhivala Memorial Inter-Collegiate Elocution Competition for Law Students was concluded.

INDUCTION PROGRAMME 2016: 27th & 28th July, 2016

SLS, P organized Induction Programme 2016 for the students of 1st Year BA/BBA/LLB (Hons.), LLB and LLM.

Dr. Gurpur gave an introduction to the college, its curriculum and highlighted the well-rounded education that includes authentic Liberal Arts, Soft Skills and IT courses. Thereafter, the students were introduced to different academic and administrative rules, regulations and processes by Professors and admin staff respectively.

COMMON COMMENCEMENT PROGRAMME- 2016 : 6th August, 2016

The dignitaries attending the Common Commencement program

SLS, Pune jointly organized the event with Symbiosis School of International Studies and Symbiosis School for Liberal Arts, constituents of SIU.

Chief Guest, Advocate Ram Jethmalani, Senior Advocate Supreme Court of India, Member of Parliament (Rajya Sabha) and Professor Emeritus, Faculty of Law, SIU spoke about the role of economists, lawyers and politicians in the country. He asked budding lawyers to educate themselves in various disciplines as lawyers who know only law are masons & not architects of the society and our country needs architects.

Padma Bhushan Dr. S.B. Mujumdar, Chancellor, SIU, called freshers the wealth of Symbiosis. Urging students to take care of their health, time and studies, he asked students to spend few minutes of everyday contemplating as 'imagination is the mother of innovation' and it is innovation that will make them successful.

LATE B.G. DESHMUKH MEMORIAL LECTURE : 23rd August, 2016

SLS, Pune and Public Concern for Governance Trust (PCGT) Pune jointly organized the Late Shri B.G. Deshmukh Memorial Lecture, 2016 on “Two Ideas of India”.

This Annual Public Lecture Series has been instituted in the honor of Late Shri B. G. Deshmukh, IAS, Former Cabinet Secretary, Government of India and Principal Secretary to the Prime Minister. Dr. Pratap Bhanu Mehta, President, Centre for Policy Research, in his Key Note Address spoke about the fault lines emerging in contemporary India and highlighted the need to diagnose the conceptual underpinnings of the same. His essential argument about the duality of ideas in India lay between India as a federation of communities and India as a zone of freedom. Dr. Mehta exhorted the audience to dissolve the boundaries between the urban and rural parts of the country and concluded his address by insisting on the need for a new structure of laws that instead of protecting our sentiments, we need to bolster the spirit of freedom and defend equality.

Hon. Justice Mohan Peiris, Former Chief Justice & Attorney General, Sri Lanka, Padma Bhushan Dr. S.B. Mujumdar, Chancellor, SIU, Dr. Rajani Gupte, VC, SIU, Dr. Gurpur, Director, SLS, Pune, Mr. S. C.
