

Student Council Induction 2012

Symbiosis Law School, Pune is a development center for some of the best leaders of our country. Apart from well-established lawyers, we have representatives in varied fields from teaching to administration to the judiciary. One significant experience it provides is being a part of the Student Council.

After a stringent selection process, the Student Council induction took place on 11th September 2012. The Director of Symbiosis Institute of Management Studies, Brig. Rajiv Divekar, graced the event along with our Director, Dr. Shashikala Gurpur and Deputy Director, Dr. Bindu Ronald. After their inspiring speeches and an oath that would be religiously followed, the event ended with a group photograph of the leaders of tomorrow with the respected Director.
